2. INDIVIDUALISTIC/POLITICAL

- Rewards those who value personal recognition, freedom and control over their own destiny and others.

3. THEORETICAL

- Rewards those who value knowledge for knowledge's sake, continuing education and intellectual growth.

BEHAVIORAL FEEDBACK

1. COMPETITIVENESS

- The job exists within a demanding environment where consistently winning is critical. The job demands tenacity, boldness, assertiveness and a "will to win" in dealing with highly competitive situations.

2. URGENCY

- The job requires decisiveness, quick response, fast action. It will often be involved in critical situations demanding that on-the-spot decisions be made with good judgment. The job will repeatedly face important deadlines that must be met on time.

3. FREQUENT CHANGE

- The job requires a comfort level with "juggling many balls in the air at the same time!" It will be asked to leave several tasks unfinished, and easily move on to new tasks with little or no notice.

JOB ATTRIBUTES QUESTIONS

Below are suggested interview questions on each of the top seven attributes. Use these as a guide to write questions that could be more job-specific. Once the list is completed, assure that all candidates respond to the same questions.

1. RESULTS ORIENTATION: The ability to identify actions necessary to complete tasks and obtain results.
 - Give me an example of one thing in your life that you have worked on for what you consider to be a very long time with no distraction or break. What did you dislike most about that? How successful were you in completing it? How long a time did you work it?
 - Give me an example of a time when someone didn't follow-through on a commitment to you. What did you do about it? How do you make sure that others around you follow through on their commitments? How do you ensure that you do?
 - Give me an example of a project that you have completed and the outcome. Please give me the most essential components of that project that played the biggest role in its completion.
 - Describe a plan you've developed for something you are currently working on. What are the most essential components of that plan...the things that must be accomplished or the plan won't work?
 - Tell me about a time when you missed a deadline. What were the consequences? What did you do differently the next time you faced a deadline?
 - Have results ever been less than stellar for a project you've worked on? What caused the results to be less than great? How did it happen?

2. PERSONAL ACCOUNTABILITY: A measure of the capacity to be answerable for personal actions.
 - Tell me about a time when it was necessary to admit to others that you had made a mistake. How did you handle it?
 - Give an example of a situation where others had made an error or mistake and you had to take the blame for their actions. How did you feel about doing that?
 - What is the worst business decision you ever made? What made it the worst? Would knowing what you do now have helped you to avoid making that decision?
 - Give me an example of a lesson you have learned from making a mistake. What did you do differently going forward?
 - Give me an example of someone you know whose personal actions led to disastrous results. How answerable is that person for what happened? What advice would you give to that person?
 - What person from history do you most admire for taking the blame for a failure? What did taking the blame do for that person?

JOB ATTRIBUTES QUESTIONS

3. ACCOUNTABILITY FOR OTHERS: The ability to take responsibility for others' actions.
 - How do you go about establishing performance standards for others? Give me an example of a set of specific standards you have established for others and how you kept track of performance.
 - Tell me about a time when you inherited a poor performer. What approach did you take with that person?
 - Describe a sensitive issue you have dealt with in correcting a subordinate. What made it so sensitive? What factors did you have to consider when dealing with it?
 - Describe a difficult, performance issue you have dealt with in the past and describe the process you used to correct the problem. What was the outcome?
 - Have you ever had a situation where failure came from a "system" rather than from the "people" who made the system function? How do you differentiate between the two? How would you go about correcting a flawed "system" versus the "people" who are part of it?
 - Describe a time when it was necessary to discipline or take punitive action with an employee. How did it work out? Did you do anything differently the next time you faced a similar problem?

4. GOAL ACHIEVEMENT: The overall ability to set, pursue and attain achievable goals, regardless of obstacles or circumstances.
 - Describe the most complex project you ever worked on. How did you establish action steps and milestones for that project? What was the most difficult part of that project for you?
 - Share with me 5 goals you have previously set for yourself in in your career. How many have you accomplished? What have been the reasons for your successful completion of them? How about those you have not completed?
 - Give me an example of a time when you really procrastinated before getting started on something. How did you get started? Did you complete that goal or project?
 - Is there one thing in your life that you have accomplished that gives you the most satisfaction? What is it? How tough was it to accomplish?
 - What is the one thing in your life that you have not been able to accomplish or complete that gives you the most frustration? Why didn't you complete it? How could you complete it?
 - Give me an example of a time when you were really able to focus your efforts on a single goal. How were you able to do that?

JOB ATTRIBUTES QUESTIONS

5. CUSTOMER FOCUS: A commitment to customer satisfaction.
 - Give me an example of a time when you knew the customer was wrong but you had to accommodate their wishes. How did you handle it? What did you say? What did you do? How did you feel about it?
 - Tell me about a situation where you were able to anticipate a customer's needs before the customer even brought up what they wanted.
 - Describe a situation where you went over and above what was expected to exceed a customer's expectations. How did you feel about that? How comfortable would you feel about doing that regularly?
 - In your view, what makes some customers more valuable than others? Should all customers be treated the same?
 - Give me an example of when you had to go the extra mile to meet a commitment that someone else had made to a customer. What, specifically, did you do? How did you feel about having to meet a commitment made by someone else?
 - Is there ever a time when a customer who is in error should be confronted? If so, give me an example of when that would be and how you would do that.

6. INFLUENCING OTHERS: The ability to personally affect others' actions, decisions, opinions or thinking.
 - What do you consider to be the most effective way to influence someone to a particular point of view? Give me an example of when you have done that successfully.
 - Who is the most convincing person you have ever known? What did that person do that made them so convincing?
 - What steps do you take when trying to gain the support for an idea of another person(s)? What is the biggest mistake someone could make when doing that?
 - Give me an example of a time when you listened carefully and you learned something that helped you gain support or convince someone of something. What is the one, single thing you listened to and how did it help you?
 - Have you ever seen someone continue to persuade someone even though the other person had already committed to the first person's point of view? What are some signs that communicate that this has happened?
 - How often do you use tools or aids to help you persuade someone to your point of view? Give me several examples of what you have used and how you used them. How successful were you?

JOB ATTRIBUTES QUESTIONS

7. LEADING OTHERS: The ability to organize and motivate people to accomplish goals while creating a sense of order and direction.
 - Who is the most effective leader you have ever seen? What made that person so effective?
 - Would you consider yourself to be a leader? What is your philosophy of leadership?
 - What do you believe are the attributes of an effective leader? How have you demonstrated these qualities? Where would you like to grow?
 - Who was the worst leader you have ever encountered? What did they do that made them the worst?
 - Who is a role model you have had in your life? What did that person do to justify being a role model? Would you do the same? How would you do it?
 - If we asked your immediate subordinates to describe your leadership style, what would they say? In what areas would they make positive comments? Negative comments?

REWARDS/CULTURE QUESTIONS

Read the following suggested interview questions as they relate to the rewards/culture environment of the job. Modify the questions to be more job-specific and assure that all candidates are asked the same questions.

1. UTILITARIAN/ECONOMIC

- How important is earning a lot of money to you? What do you consider to be a "lot of money"?
- Where would you like to be, financially, in 5 years? 10 years? Why?
- What role does earning a significant income play in your job choices? In staying in a job?
- Would you consider yourself to be a bottom line, practical thinker or are you more theoretical or philosophical? Why do you say that?

2. INDIVIDUALISTIC/POLITICAL

- What role does being in control of a situation play in your job satisfaction? How important is it for you to control your own destiny?
- How important is independence to you? Power? Influencing others? What would be your level of satisfaction with a job if you had none of these?
- How good are you in taking directions from others? How much do you like doing so?
- How do you go about influencing others to act? Give me a concrete, real-world example of a time when you were able to move a group of people to action and exactly how you did it.

3. THEORETICAL

- Which is more important, action or knowledge?
- Would you consider yourself to be an expert in something? What is it? How did you go about gaining the knowledge?
- Tell me what you especially like or enjoy about learning things. What topics or subjects do you enjoy?
- How comfortable are you in taking the time, energy and effort required to master a subject or topic you currently know very little about? How about one in which you have very little interest?

BEHAVIORAL QUESTIONS

Read the following suggested interview questions as they relate to the most desired behavioral traits to perform the job. Modify the questions to be more job-specific and assure that all candidates are asked the same questions.

1. COMPETITIVENESS

- How demanding are you of yourself and others? Do you think you are sometimes too demanding? Give me an example of a job situation where being demanding helped achieve the goal. Did it lead to other problems? Would others ever describe you as aggressive? Pushy? Why?
- How important is winning to you? How do you define winning? Give me an example of a situation where you felt you were going to lose. How did it feel? How did you handle it?

2. URGENCY

- When faced with a deadline, how do you respond?
- How important is it to you to have all the facts before proceeding? Give me an example of a time when you didn't have all the facts and you proceeded anyway. How did you feel? How did it work out?

3. FREQUENT CHANGE

- When you are forced to change priorities or direction, how do you respond?
- When things keep coming at you and nothing seems to get completed, how do you feel? When this happens, how do you handle the situation?
